PARIS, Dec. 25.—Believing that the best way to discover the ruth about political and economic conditions in Germany was to go to ermany, seeing conditions for myself, I have just completed two eks of journeying through the former kaiser's empire, eight days which time I spent in Berlin.

I was fortunate enough to be the first American newspaper rrespondent to make his way through the Franco-American mies on the west front, penetrating the German lines and passing m to Berlin, at every opportunity, making careful observations and exhaustive inquiries regarding the food situation and political and military conditions.

Four other correspondents entered Germany with me, but at Frankfort I accepted an offer to make a speedy voyage to the capital in an airplane, this battered war flyer enabling me to gain two days for additional research, having made the flight of 385 miles in three hours and thirty-five minutes. This was a great advantage, on account of the congested conditions of the railroads and highways, due to the demobilization of the armies and the rushing of equipment, men, and stores back from the frontiers. Traveling by train or motor car was so slow it often presented emingly insurmountable difficulties because of the shattered railway service, the crowded roads, the lack of tires and gas for automobiles, but the enforced delays gave opportunities for the study of Germany which would otherwise have been impossible.

Revolution Seems Genuine.

The most important phases of the German situation today may best be summarized under three heads, as follows:

First-The revolution is complete and apparently genuine, the great majority of the people seemingly having embraced spontane-ously the chance to throw off the rulers and militaristic chiefs who plunged the empire into disaster. 65.00 45.00 e, gabardine 75.00 35.00

The country is now striving to resume its former peaceful vocations, but is shuddering at the prospect of having to feed millions of eturned soldiers, whereas there is insufficient food now for those ivilians occupying unproductive areas.

Government control is eagerly sought by the various parties of vergent aims and views, but since Nov. 11 control has been nomvally in the possession of the Arbeiter und Soldatenrat, composed of workers and soldiers' committees in each army corps, the district being composed of representatives selected in the ratio of one local delegate to each fifty of the workers and soldiers.

These co-operate with twenty-eight members of a similar comnittee in Berlin, which twenty-eight in turn have supervised the adistration of the cabinet of six formed by Ebert and composed of three moderate Socialists and three radicals, thus establishing a dicatorship pending the convening of a national assembly on Feb. 16.

Little Violence or Bloodshed.

Thus far the administration of affairs has been accompanied by ittle violence or bloodshed, but has been punctuated by many minor sorders and lawless acts which are dealt with vigorously.

Meanwhile, bolshevism, impersonated by Liebknecht and suported by the Spartacus group trades on famine conditions in an direction of President Wilson to formort to enlist civilians and returning soldiers in a program of ulate a program for food distribution fror and destruction.

UNITED STATES " ARE." [From the New Bedford Standard.]

Bryce in the opening chapter of "The America Commonwealth," narrates the episode of the Protestant Episcopal church, which, having adopted as short sentence prayer for the whole people the words, "O Lord, bless our nation," subsequently changed it, because of its too definite recognition of national unity, to "O Lord, bless these United States." "This fear of admitting that the American people constitute a nation," says the author, " seems Stammering results from faulty mental processes. Persons who think calmly, quietly, and at the right speed and then talk quietly, calmly, and at the right speed do not stammer. Your letter shows that you have the process of the stammer. Your letter shows that you are introspective and not judicial and poised. You need les ons in mental poise and not in arm swing If confidence and calm are engendered it helps. Therefore, what you need is to get into another mental state (not intimating for a minute that Indiana is not a mental state).

The Fashion Message in Suits-

Travel suits of fine wool fabrics are developed in slim, straight lines. Leather gives a novel touch to some suits designed particularly for youth.

Suits of silk debonair, graceful lines are, with many clever details, for club and afternoon wear. A brilliant color note is often introduced. Prices range from $45 to $150.

Frocks Entirely New and Charming-

The colorful touch returns in frocks destined for outdoor pastime wear. White crepe de Chine skirts have long peasant blouses of vivid green or cherry color.

For afternoon occasions are frocks of tricolette and of a new weave called Poulette. And Georgette crepe frocks exquisitely beaded and embroidered. $35 to $175.

The Separate Skirts of the New Season Are Most Attractive

Printed silk marquisettes are combined with Baronet satins. Fan-Ta-Si silks, tricolette, Georgette crepe, and fine wools are all employed. $5 to $37.50.

PATHENEWS

TOT a newspaper, not a magazine -yet it has the largest circulation in the world! Its circulation results from its phenomenal popularity. It now resumes the name under which it became famous—the Pathe News.

It is a motion picture. It has educated more persons to a fondness for the Silent Drama than everything else put together. Eight years ago when the word "movies" was used in contempt the great men of the nation were wont to visit the theatres where it was showing. Through it the uneducated were taught the personalities of the great men of the world; visited the great cities of the earth; by it were broadened, educated; ceased to be provincial and came to know the people of other lands.

Twenty Million Persons See Every Issue

It is shown twice a week in the best motion picture theatres everywhere. Just as it was the first of all motion picture news weeklies, so it always has been, and now is, the best. Twenty-two years of successful picture making are behind it.

Now it promises and will attain an even wider usefulness.

You should not miss a single issue. Ask the manager of your favorite theatre the days on which he shows it!

Suppose a human being lives to be hree-score and ten years old, as, barring accident, he should. In one year he will eat 1,095 meals. In all his years he will eat times and times that. Is it reasonable that he should have only such knowledge of food and its preparation as shall come to him at haphazard? It is not reasonable, for food is the truest A, B, C of life.

We have been introduced to the food question in rather new and almost violent ways during the last year and a half. Shall we let what we have gained of impetus be a great start? Pleasant Variety in Evening, Afternoon and Day Frocks

COUR of the Evening Frocks illustrated in the center at the top give a hint of the charm of these styles. Several are formal, with only an airy scarf of malines, or little, wing-like sleeves of malines, while a particularly lovely one boasts a soft, becoming roll collar to the waistline, and little sleeves terminating just above the elbow in soft up-rolled cuffs. The loveliest colorings are offered, sometimes accentuated with pearl sequined bands or a colorful flower.

Taffeta and crepe Georgette for afternoon occasions express in delightful new lines and simplicity of trimming much hope for their instant popularity. Soft blue crepe Georgette, trimmed simply with wide bands of itself is accentuated with black "nail-head" beads, at the center of the group at the left. $35. Most exceptional is the crepe Georgette Frock, richly embroidered on front and back overskirts, on deep-cuffed, flaring sleeves and bodice fronts with jet beads, at the extreme left. $35. Crepe Meteor of a beautiful quality makes a very simple Frock with a deep shirred band on its skirt to achieve a narrow line. At the extreme right. $35.

For street wear. A Serge Frock takes a flaring jacket, tied with black moire ribbons at the neck, and open enough to reveal a tucked crepe Georgette vestee. Very exceptional at $25. A very trim-fitting serge, embroidered back and front on its skirt and outlined with heavy buttons on each side, is pictured.
